

Report No. 30/2022

Exemption from toll collection for certain vehicles on the concession section of the A4 Katowice - Kraków motorway ("Section") in connection with the armed conflict in Ukraine - update

With reference to reports No. 8/2022 of February 28, 2022, No. 14/2022 of March 25, 2022 and No. 25/2022 of April 28, 2022, the Management Board of Stalexport Autostrady S.A. with headquarters in Mysłowice (hereinafter: "Stalexport Autostrady S.A.") informs that in accordance with the decision of Stalexport Autostrada Małopolska S.A. with headquarters in Mysłowice (hereinafter: "SAM S.A." or "Concessionaire") from June 1, 2022 the exemption from toll collection on the above mentioned Section, in connection with the armed conflict in Ukraine, will apply only to vehicles or groups of vehicles of all categories reported by:

- (i) Polish non-governmental organizations,
- (ii) foreign organizations and persons,

as providing help to the citizens of Ukraine, on the basis of applications submitted by the Minister of Infrastructure or based on applications sent to the Concessionaire.

The above mentioned exemption from tolls will apply until June 30, 2022.

From June 1, 2022 tolls will resume for vehicles with Ukrainian registration plates on the above-mentioned Section, unless they are previously reported as providing help to Ukrainian citizens.

Stalexport Autostrada Małopolska S.A. is a 100% subsidiary of Stalexport Autostrady S.A.
