§13

The remuneration and other terms and conditions of employment of members of the Management Board are determined by the Supervisory Board, by concluding appropriate agreements with them, and represents the Company in any disputes with members of the Management Board.

B. SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. The Supervisory Board consists of 5 (five) to 9 (nine) members, including the Chairperson and his Deputy. The number of members of the Supervisory Board for a given term is determined by the General Meeting.
2. The term of office of the Supervisory Board lasts three years. The term of office is calculated in full financial years. The terms of office of the members of the Supervisory Board shall expire on the date of the General Meeting approving the financial statements for the last full financial year in which they served as members of the Supervisory Board.
3. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed for a joint term of office. The term of office of a member of the Supervisory Board appointed before the expiration of a given term of office of the Board shall expire simultaneously with the expiration of the terms of office of the remaining members of the Supervisory Board.
4. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting. Members of the Supervisory Board shall elect from among themselves the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, and a Deputy Chairperson upon his motion.
5. In the event of the death or resignation of a member of the Supervisory Board, the Board shall be entitled to continue its work for the term in question, provided that the number of its remaining members is not less than the number specified in Article 385 § 1 of the Commercial Companies Code. The provision of paragraph 6 of this section shall apply accordingly.
6. The Supervisory Board should also include at least two independent members, i.e. free of any ties that could significantly affect the ability of an independent member to make impartial decisions.

7. The criteria for independence of members of the Supervisory Board and other related issues shall be specified in detail in the bylaws of the Supervisory Board.

1. The Supervisory Board shall elect a Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, a Deputy Chairperson of the Supervisory Board and a Secretary at its first meeting and shall hold a by-election at its next meeting if necessary.
2. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board or his deputy, or a person designated by the Chairperson, convenes the meetings of the Board and presides at them. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board of the previous term or a member of the Supervisory Board designated by the Chairperson shall convene and open the first meeting of the newly elected Board and preside at the meeting until the election of the Chairperson of the Board. If the first meeting of the Supervisory Board is not convened as described above within 14 days from the date of election – any of the elected members of the Supervisory Board shall be entitled to convene the first meeting.
3. The Supervisory Board may dismiss the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson or the Secretary of the Supervisory Board.
